

The Boulder Council Hotline

Last Updated Thursday, 31 August 2006

The Boulder Council Hotline is an Email "conversation" among Boulder City Council members and city staff. Interested members of the public may receive these Emails, but may not post Emails to the Hotline.

If community members would like to respond to something they see over the Hotline, they are invited to send an Email to the 9-member city council at: council@bouldercolorado.gov. (Important: Messages to city council are public record.)

To subscribe yourself to the public ListServ to receive all Hotline Emails, please follow the instructions below:
